

2009 School of Education Research Symposium

Research to Practice through Engagement with the Community of Practitioners

This year's Research Symposium seeks to bring together undergraduate students, graduate students, faculty, and other professionals from across disciplines and educational program areas to identify intersections between practice and research. The focus for the 2009 Symposium is an in-depth look at research projects that are exemplary models of working with local communities and schools.

UNC
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Friday, April 24, 2009

9:00 am – 3:30 pm

Featured Presenters:

First School

Freedom Schools

Research Triangle School Partnership

School Success Profile

and

Dean Bill McDiarmid

Location: Student Union Multi-Purpose Room
3201, 3202, 3206a, 3206b

<http://uncsoe.pbwiki.com>

<http://soe.unc.edu/gsa/events/symposium/>